Over-Breeding of Horses.

An old stock raiser well and truly says that in the attempt to breed fast trotters for the track, breeders have to a remarkable degree lost sight of or neglected the art of breeding good roadsters and the popular horses for all work, whether before a buggy or a plow, a coupe or a mowing machine, horse rake, tedder, or whatever else an ordinary farmer, mechanic, merchant or trades-man wishes to do with his horse. There are such horses, but the supply comes far short of the demand. A class of horses of the weight of above one thousand pounds, each can trot ten miles an honr on a good | commercial fertilizers freely. road without sweating, fretting or urging, is a breed of horses very much needed both in the country and in the $1.25; Orchard grass, $1,60a1.75. Clover, city. The Morgans and the Black Hawks once seemed to fill this need and want, especially the class first named. The demand for Morgan horses was once unparalleled, and the supply was forthcoming, for it was order, and the business of manufacturing pedigrees for those in want of them is not new. While the Morgans were good roadsters, they were, as a class, "fast trotter," as that phrase has been long under-stood. Yet they were free, good drivers, stylish and and are becoming more and more so as well as fast trotters, of any that courses in the veins of the horse family C. A. Coffin and Gen. Jos. A. "RECENT CHANGES,"

Wilmot L. Warren. From Hon. Wm. M. Evarts, Secretary of State-DEPARTMENT OF STATE,

GENTLEMEN:-I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th instant, and of the copy of "The Constitutions of the Several States of the Union and United States in the Year 1859," which you have had the kindness to send me. The book appears to be a valuable and useful one, and I am very glad to possess it. I am, gentlemen, Very truly yours, WM. M. EVARTS.

From the New York Tribune. A useful collection of public documents is published by A. S. Barner & Cc. in "The Constitution of the Several States of the Usion and United States" prior to the commencement of the Civil War. The volume also includes the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Contederation and an Essay on Recent Changes in American State Constitutions, by Walmot L. Warren. The comparative views which it pre-sents of the Constitutions of the different states render it a convenient book of reference, and an almost indispensable addition to the political
